Bill Status Report: Explanation

A. Purpose of the Report. There are a number of steps in the Legislative process that each bill must pass through in order to become an enacted law. Updated after adjournment each day of the Session, the Bill Status Report (commonly referred to as the "Purple Sheet") may be used to find out how far a particular bill has progressed through the Legislative process.

Note: While the Legislature is in Session, members of the public can also obtain bill status information by calling the Bill Status Hotline toll-free within Wyoming at 1-800-342-9570. Out-of-State callers should dial 307-777-6185 for this service.

B. Steps in the Legislative Process. Generally speaking, each House Bill or Senate File must pass through the following steps:

- Received for Introduction in the House of Origin ("House of Origin" is the House of Representatives in the case of a House bill, or the Senate in the case of a Senate File).
- Introduced (First Reading) in the House of Origin and referred to a Standing Committee.
- Scheduled for hearing in the Standing Committee.
- Reported back from the Standing Committee (with or without proposed amendments) and placed on General File in the House of Origin. ("General File" is simply a list of bills that are awaiting further action by the entire membership of the House or Senate sitting as the Committee of the Whole.)
- Considered in Committee of the Whole (CoW) in the House of Origin.
- Considered on Second Reading.
- Considered and final vote on Third Reading in the House of Origin.
- If passed, the bill is then sent to the Second House where it must pass through the same set of steps outlined above.
- If a bill is passed in identical form by both the House and Senate it is sent to the Governor for approval.
- If there are differences between the bill as passed by the House and Senate then the Second House will request that the House of Origin "concur" in the version of the bill as passed by the Second House.
- If the House of Origin does not concur, the bill is sent to a Joint Conference Committee (JCC) to work out the differences between the two houses.

Using the Bill Status Report you can locate what stage or step a particular bill has reached in this process.

C. How to Read the Bill Status Report.

- Column 1 provides the Bill number.
- Column 2 indicates the Prime Sponsor of the Bill.
- Column 3 provides the catch title which is the short name commonly used to refer to the Bill.
- Column 4 indicates the date of the last formal action taken on the bill. An asterisk (*) by this date indicates that the action was taken on the date the Bill Status Report was prepared.
- Column 5 has no heading but is used to indicate whether the bill has been amended in either house. An "H" in this column indicates the bill was amended in the House of Representatives. An "S" indicates that the bill was amended in the Senate. If the column is blank this indicates that to date no amendment to this bill has been adopted by either house.
- Column 6 indicates the last formal action taken on the bill. Following are some common examples of actions that might be listed in this column:

- "S Introduced and Referred to S02" = The bill has been introduced in the Senate and has been assigned to Standing Committee number 2 which is the Senate Appropriations Committee.
- "S Placed on General File" = This indicates the bill has been reported out of the Senate Standing Committee and has been placed on the General File list awaiting consideration in the Senate by the Committee of the Whole.
- "S Failed CoW 10-20; Indef Postponed" = the bill was considered in Committee of the Whole in the Senate but failed to pass Committee of the Whole by a vote of 10 Ayes and 20 Noes. The bill was subsequently "indefinitely postponed" which means it will not be considered further this session.
- "S Introduced and Referred to S02; No Report Prior to CoW Cutoff" = the bill was introduced in the Senate and assigned to the Senate appropriations committee. However, the committee did not report the bill out in time to be placed on General file prior to the cutoff date for bills to be considered in committee of the whole. There will likely be no further action taken on this bill during the session.

D. Special Notes:

1. A bill assigned to a standing committee of the House or Senate may remain there for a number of days awaiting consideration by the Standing Committee. To find out when a bill will be scheduled for hearing in Standing Committee check the "Committee Meeting Calendars" on this Web site.

2. A bill may similarly remain on General File for several days prior to being scheduled for consideration by the Committee of the Whole. If time runs short, the bill may, in fact, never be considered in Committee of the Whole.

3. Once a bill is considered in Committee of the Whole it will normally be taken up on Second and Third reading on the next two consecutive days of the Session.

4. A bill assigned to a standing committee will be "reported out" of the standing committee and placed on General File, only if the standing committee adopts one of the following positive motions:

- Do Pass
- Amend and Do Pass
- Do Not Pass
- No Recommendation

If none of these motions is made on the bill in Committee, of if one of the foregoing positive motions is made in the standing committee but fails, the bill will remain in the Standing Committee's possession until the end of the session and will continue to be listed in the Bill Status Report as "Introduced and Referred to ___".

5. At a certain point during the Session a "cutoff" date is established for bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole. Absent some extraordinary circumstance, bills still in committee or otherwise missing this cutoff will generally receive no further action during the session.

FIFTY-NINTH WYOMING LEGISLATURE

APPROVED INTERIM COMMITTEE STUDIES

2007 INTERIM

JOINT JUDICIARY INTERIM COMMITTEE

Standard Budget: $25,000

Priority 1 Juvenile Probation Services

Juveniles entering the justice system receive disparate treatment, depending on the court in which the juvenile appears and the location of the court. While juvenile courts have access to a wide array of services to treat a juvenile offender, other courts, including district, circuit and municipal courts may, or may not, be able to access services for the juvenile, depending on the location of the court. Early intervention and diversion services for juveniles are often successful in avoiding future involvement with the justice system. The Committee will conduct a comprehensive review of juvenile services that are available to courts at the various jurisdictional levels throughout the state. After the review is complete, the Committee will consider approaches to ensure access to early intervention services for juveniles, regardless of the jurisdictional level or location of the court. This study may extend into the 2008 interim to ensure draft legislation is comprehensive in addressing the availability of services to juveniles involved with the justice system in Wyoming.

Priority 2 DNA post-conviction appeals process

The accuracy of DNA evidence and testing procedures has resulted in a recent increasein the exoneration of persons erroneously convicted of crimes after having spent, in some cases, many years incarcerated. Currently, 41 states have developed some procedures for persons convicted of crimes to appeal their convictions based on DNA evidence, after the normal time periods for appeals have been exhausted. Wyoming is one of 9 states that does not have procedures in place to allow such appeals. The Committee will explore the need for establishing such procedures in Wyoming.

Priority 3 Criminal sentencing review

Wyoming is ranked eighth in the nation in the number of persons incarcerated per capita. Many recent legislative proposals have included establishing increased minimum mandatory sentences and increased maximum sentences. Such sentencing proposals place increased pressure on the corrections system to meet the demands of prisoners remaining within the corrections system for longer periods. Several recent studies, and the experience in Colorado and other states, suggest that ever increasing rates of incarceration and their subsequent budgetary costs are subject to diminishing returns in effectiveness of impact upon crime rates. Some states have conducted reviews of their sentencing procedures and priorities, and have restructured their systems to reduce sentencing and maximize the efficiencies of their corrections system without increasing, and in some cases reducing, the level of crime in the state. The Committee will conduct a comprehensive review of the available data, along with a review of sentencing laws, the application of those laws by the courts, andhow other states have addressed the stresses on the corrections system caused by the sentencing policies of the state. This study may be extended into the 2008 interim to ensure a rational approach to criminal sentencing is proposed, if necessary.

Priority 4 Lien Statutes Study

Last interim, the Committee was charged with reviewing lien statutes and proposing recommended legislative changes. After consideration of proposed legislation based on the work of a group of attorneys appointed by the Wyoming State Bar, the Committee determined that a significantly more comprehensive review of lien statutes was necessary and subsequently proposed legislation to create a lien study task force. That legislation, 07SF0037, failed. The Committee believes a comprehensive study of the lien laws of Wyoming should be conducted, but believes this study may take 2 years to ensure the laws are reviewed thoroughly before proposing legislation. The Committee therefore proposes to begin this study during the 2007 interim, with possible completion of the study, including proposed legislation, during the 2008 interim.

Tentative Meeting Schedule

The Committee anticipates a 1-day meeting in May or June; a 2-day meeting in July; and a 2-day meeting in September.

2007 GENERAL SESSION

AN ACT relating to the Uniform Trust Code; providing for the creation of qualified spendthrift trusts; specifying what constitutes qualified trust property; providing for qualified transfers of trust property and duties of trustees; providing for distribution of trust assets; specifying when and how trust assets may be attached; providing for burdens of proof and the weight of evidence in specified actions; amending and providing additional definitions; conforming provisions; clarifying effect of provisions; limiting consideration of case law from other jurisdictions as specified; repealing provisions; and providing for an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Wyoming:

Section 1. W.S. 4-10-505 and 4-10-510 through 4-10-523 are created to read:

4-10-505. Standards of distribution.

(a) Regardless of whether a beneficiary's interest in trust income or principal or both is subject to a spendthrift provision, if the terms of the trust direct the trustee to make distributions of trust income or principal or both according to a standard, which includes distributions for the beneficiary's maintenance or support, and the trustee has not complied with the standard of distribution:

(ii) In the order of distribution, the court shall direct the trustee to pay to or for the benefit of the child that portion of the trust income or principal or both as is equitable under the circumstances, but not more than the amount the trustee would have been required to distribute to or for the benefit of the beneficiary had the trustee complied with the standard of distribution.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (a) of this section, a creditor or assignee of a beneficiary may not compel distributions from the trust or attach distributions to be made to a beneficiary until the distributions are received by the beneficiary, if the terms of the trust limit the trustee's ability to make distributions by a standard of distribution, even when the beneficiary is also a trustee or cotrustee of the trust.

(c) This section shall not limit the right of a beneficiary to maintain a judicial proceeding against a trustee for a failure to comply with a standard for distributions to the beneficiary.

4-10-510. Creation of qualified spendthrift trust.

(a) A settlor may create a qualified spendthrift trust with a trust instrument appointing a qualified trustee for qualified trust property, which instrument:

(iii) Provides that the interest of the settlor in the trust income or principal, or both, is held subject to a spendthrift provision under W.S. 4-10-502 and such provision of the trust instrument shall be deemed to be a restriction on the transfer of the settlor's beneficial interest in the trust that is enforceable under applicable nonbankruptcy law within the meaning of Section 541(c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code;

(iv) Is irrevocable, but a trust instrument may not be deemed revocable on account of its inclusion of one (1) or more of the following:

(A) A settlor's power to veto a distribution from the trust;

(B) An inter vivos or testamentary general or limited power of appointment held by the settlor;

(C) The settlor's potential or actual receipt of income, including rights to the income retained in the trust instrument;

(D) The settlor's potential or actual receipt of income or principal from a charitable remainder unitrust or charitable remainder annuity trust as those terms are defined in Section 664 of the Internal Revenue Code;

(K) The settlor's right to serve as an investment advisor to the trust, with the powers provided in W.S. 4-10-712(a)(iii) and (iv).

(ii) Are acquired with the proceeds of property of a qualified transfer.

(b) Qualified trust property is subject to W.S. 4-10-514 through 4-10-523.

4-10-512. Qualified transfers; exception.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, "qualified transfer" means a transfer, conveyance or assignment of property, by or from a settlor, with or without consideration, to a qualified trustee, under a trust instrument which meets the requirements of W.S. 4-10-510. "Qualified transfer" also includes:

(i) A change in the legal ownership of property occurring upon the substitution of a qualified trustee for another or the addition of one (1) or more qualified trustees; or

(ii) The exercise of a power so as to cause a transfer of property to a qualified trustee.

(b) A qualified transfer shall require an affidavit from the settlor making the transfer to the trustee of the qualified spendthrift trust in the form provided in W.S. 4-10-523, except that no affidavit shall be required for a transfer under W.S. 4-10-515.

(c) The term "qualified transfer" does not include the release or relinquishment of an interest in property that previously was the subject of a qualified transfer.

4-10-513. Other qualified transfers.

(a) In the case of a transfer to more than one (1) trustee, the transfer will be a qualified transfer if at least one (1) of the trustees is a qualified trustee.

(b) A transfer by a trustee that is not a qualified trustee to a trustee that is a qualified trustee shall be treated as a qualified transfer so long as the recipient trustee is the trustee under a qualified spendthrift trust.

4-10-514. Action brought pursuant to provisions of Uniform Fraudulent Transfers Act.

Except as provided in W.S. 4-10-518, no action of any kind, including an action to enforce a judgment entered by a court or other body having adjudicative authority, may be brought at law or in equity for an attachment or other provisional remedy against qualified trust property or to set aside a qualified transfer unless the action is brought pursuant to the provisions of the Uniform Fraudulent Transfers Act.

4-10-515. Transfer by a trustee; time of transfer.

(a) A qualified transfer by a trustee of a qualified spendthrift trust to a qualified trustee of another qualified spendthrift trust shall relate back to the date of the original qualified transfer.

(b) A transfer of trust property from the trustee of a trust created in another jurisdiction, which provides creditor protection to the settlor similar to that provided in this article, to a trustee of a qualified spendthrift trust shall relate back to the date of the original transfer to the trust created in the other jurisdiction.

4-10-516. Election to become a qualified spendthrift trust by existing trust.

(a) The settlor, trustee or trust protector of an existing irrevocable trust may elect in writing to treat the trust as a qualified spendthrift trust under this article, and the protection accorded under this article shall relate back to the date of the election subject to extinguishment of a creditor's claim with respect to a prior qualified transfer utilizing the procedures provided in W.S. 4-10-514, if:

(i) The trust is modified nonjudicially under W.S. 4-10-111 to conform to the provisions of W.S. 4-10-510 within one (1) year after the election; or

(ii) A petition is filed under W.S. 4-10-412 to conform to the provisions of W.S. 4-10-510 within thirty (30) days of the election.

4-10-517. Rights of creditors or others with respect to qualified spendthrift trust.

Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, a creditor or assignee of a settlor of a qualified spendthrift trust, or an agent of a creditor or settlor, has only such rights with respect to the qualified trust property as are provided in W.S. 4-10-514 through 4-10-523 and no creditor, assignee or agent may have any claim or cause of action against the trustee, trust protector, trust advisor or other fiduciary of the trust, or against any person involved in the counseling, drafting, administration, preparation, execution or funding of the trust.

4-10-518. Actions prohibited if action by creditor would be barred.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no judgment or order upon an action to enforce a judgment, or for relief for conspiracy to commit a fraudulent conveyance, aiding and abetting a fraudulent conveyance or participation in the trust transaction, may be entered by a court or other body having adjudicative authority, or may be brought at law or in equity against the trustee, trust protector, trust advisor or other fiduciary of a qualified spendthrift trust, or against any person involved in the counseling, drafting, preparation, administration, execution or funding of the trust, if, as of the date the action is brought, an action by a creditor or assignee with respect to the trust would be barred under W.S. 4-10-517.

4-10-519. Multiple qualified transfers in same trust instrument.

(a) If more than one (1) qualified transfer is made to the same qualified spendthrift trust:

(i) The making of a subsequent qualified transfer shall be disregarded in determining whether a creditor's claim with respect to a prior qualified transfer is extinguished utilizing the procedures provided in W.S. 4-10-514; and

(ii) Any distribution to a beneficiary other than the settlor shall be deemed to have been made from the qualified trust property attributable to the earliest qualified transfer to the trust, unless a creditor of the settlor is able to prove by clear and convincing evidence otherwise.

4-10-520. Limitations on qualified trust property.

(a) The provisions of W.S. 4-10-510 through 4-10-523, do not apply in any respect to:

(i) Any person to whom a settlor is indebted on account of an agreement or order of court for the payment of support in favor of the settlor's children;

(ii) Qualified trust property that is listed upon an application or financial statement used to obtain or maintain credit other than for the benefit of the qualified spendthrift trust; or

(iii) Property of a qualified spendthrift trust that was transferred to the trust by a settlor who received the property by a fraudulent transfer as defined by the Wyoming Fraudulent Transfers Act.

4-10-521. Avoidance of qualified transfer.

(a) A qualified transfer to a qualified spendthrift trust is avoided only to the extent necessary to satisfy the settlor's debt to the creditor at whose instance the qualified transfer had been avoided, together with costs, including attorney's fees if otherwise authorized, as the court may allow. If any qualified transfer is avoided as provided in this section, then:

(i) If the court is satisfied that a qualified trustee has not acted in bad faith in accepting or administering the property that is the subject of the qualified transfer:

(A) The qualified trustee has a first and paramount lien against the property that is the subject of the qualified transfer in an amount equal to the entire cost, including attorney's fees, court costs, penalties, fines, fees and other amounts paid or payable, which were properly incurred by the qualified trustee in the defense of the action or proceedings to avoid the qualified transfer. It shall be presumed that the qualified trustee did not act in bad faith merely by accepting the property; and

(B) The qualified transfer is avoided subject to the proper fees, costs, preexisting rights, claims and interests of the qualified trustee, and of any predecessor trustee that has not acted in bad faith.

(ii) If the court is satisfied that a beneficiary of a qualified spendthrift trust has not acted in bad faith, the avoidance of the qualified transfer is subject to the right of the beneficiary to retain any distribution made upon the exercise of a trust power or discretion vested in the qualified trustee of the trust, which power or discretion was properly exercised prior to the creditor's commencement of an action to avoid the qualified transfer. It shall be presumed that the beneficiary, including a beneficiary who is also a settlor of a qualified spendthrift trust, did not act in bad faith merely by creating the trust or by accepting a distribution made in accordance with the terms of the trust.

(b) A creditor shall have the burden of proving by clear and convincing evidence that a trustee or beneficiary of a qualified spendthrift trust acted in bad faith under paragraph (a)(i) or (ii) of this section, except that, in the case of a beneficiary who is also a settlor, the burden on the creditor shall be to prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the settlor or beneficiary acted in bad faith.

4-10-522. Limitation or termination of authority of trustee upon court decision not to apply Wyoming law.

If, in any action brought against a trustee of a qualified spendthrift trust, a court takes any action whereby the court declines to apply the law of this state in determining the validity, construction or administration of the trust, or the effect of a spendthrift provision thereof, the trustee may immediately resign without the further order of any court, and cease in all respects to be trustee of the trust. In the event that the trustee does resign and no provision for a successor trustee exists in the trust instrument, the qualified beneficiaries may then petition a Wyoming district court with appropriate jurisdiction to appoint a successor trustee who shall succeed as trustee upon such terms and conditions as the district court determines to be consistent with the purposes of the trust and this act. Upon the trustee's ceasing to be trustee, the trustee shall have no power or authority other than to convey the trust property to the successor trustee named in the trust instrument or appointed by the district court.

4-10-523. Qualified transfer affidavit.

(a) A qualified transfer affidavit shall be in writing, sworn to by the settlor, and shall state that:

(i) The settlor has full right, title and authority to transfer the property to the qualified spendthrift trust;

(ii) The transfer of the property to the qualified spendthrift trust will not render the settlor insolvent;

(iii) The settlor does not intend to defraud any creditors by transferring the property to the qualified spendthrift trust;

(iv) The settlor does not have any pending or threatened court actions against him, except for those court actions identified in the affidavit;

(v) The settlor is not involved in any administrative proceedings, except for those administrative proceedings identified in the affidavit;

(vi) At the time of the transfer of the property to the qualified spendthrift trust, the settlor is not in default of a child support obligation by more than thirty (30) days;

(vii) The settlor does not contemplate the filing for relief under the provisions of the federal Bankruptcy Code; and

(viii) The property transferred to the qualified spendthrift trust was not derived from any unlawful activities; and

(ix) The settlor has and shall maintain personal liability insurance of at least one million dollars ($1,000,000.00) or shall provide coverage equal to the fair market value of the settlor's total qualified transfers to qualified spendthrift trusts, whichever is less. This affidavit requirement shall not apply to a qualified transfer to a trust created by a court order under W.S. 3-3-607.

(ii) "Beneficiary" means a person that:

(B) In a capacity other than that of trustee or trust protector, holds a power of appointment over trust property.

(xv) "Qualified beneficiary" means a beneficiary who is currently entitled to distributions of income or principal from the trust or has a vested remainder interest in the residuary of the trust which is not subject to divestment, provided, however, if a trust has no qualified beneficiary, "qualified beneficiary" shall mean a beneficiary currently eligible to receive distributions of income or principal from the trust;

(xviii) "Settlor" means a person, including a testator, grantor or trust maker, who creates, transfers or contributes property to, a trust.
