Title Action Network Announces Record Membership

Boasts representation in all 50 states and 36 state association partners

Palm Beach, FL., October 11, 2013 —The Title Action Network (TAN), the premier grassroots organization promoting the value of the land title industry, announced today that it has recruited more than 5,000 members. The organization was launched in 2012 and currently has 5,900 members.

TAN is an affiliated organization with the American Land Title Association (ALTA), the national trade association of the land title insurance industry.

“We are extremely pleased with the growth and participation in TAN this year,” said Michelle Korsmo, ALTA’s chief executive officer. “TAN member continue to recruit land title professionals from around the country to help promote the value of the industry to legislators and regulators.”

TAN is also pleased to announce partnership with 36 state land title associations. State association partners include: Alaska, Arkansas, Arizona, California, Colorado, Dixie Land (Georgia, Mississippi, Alabama), Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New England (Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Vermont, & New Hampshire), New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Utah, Virginia, Washington, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

“The participation from the state land title association has been exceptional,” said Frank Pellegrini, ALTA’s president. “Through the use of TAN, several states including Colorado, Indiana, Minnesota and New York have already seen legislative victories on industry issues. The continued growth of TAN depends heavily on the continued use by our state partners. We are grateful for their support.”
