

Mark A. Bilbrey
Treasurer
American Land Title Association

Mark A. Bilbrey is Senior Vice President & Chief Operating Officer of the Central Title Group for Old Republic National Title Insurance Company (ORNTIC). Headquartered in Minneapolis, Minn., ORNTIC is the highest rated title insurer in the nation. In August 2007, ORNTIC celebrated its 100th year anniversary of being in business.

Mark is a 36-year title insurance industry veteran, who for 26 years was President of Warranty Title & Abstract in Oklahoma. Prior to joining ORNTIC in February 2007, he worked for a national underwriter as its National Agency Sales Manager for several years.

Most are familiar with Mark through his tireless efforts on behalf of the industry with the American Land Title Association. Over the years, he has served as a Chair of the Finance Committee, Abstracter/Agent Research Committee, Title Insurance Assurance Corporation (TIAC) and Title Reinsurance Corporation (TRC), and as a member of the Government Affairs Committee and Nominating Committee for Abstracters and Title Insurance Agents Section. In October of 2004, Mark was elected President of ALTA. He currently serves on ALTA's Board of Directors as Treasurer. Mark is also Vice-Chair of Title Insurance Political Action Committee (TIPAC) and is Co-Chair of the Past Presidents Committee.

Mark also has been extremely involved with the industry at the Oklahoma state level, serving as President of the Oklahoma Land Title Association in 1993. He presently is Co-Chair of Legislative Committee for the association. In 1996, Mark was recognized by his peers for contributions to the industry as recipient of the William "Bill" Gill Award as Oklahoma's Outstanding Title Person.

A native of Oklahoma, Mark graduated from the University of Oklahoma and is active in many civic and community organizations. Mark's office is located in Houston, Texas.
