American Land Title Association Announces Two National Title Professional Designations

Boston – October 8, 2015 — The American Land Title Association (ALTA), the national trade association of the land title insurance industry, announces two National Title Professional (NTP) designations. The two designees join 49 other industry leaders from around the country who have earned the prestigious professional designation.

The professional designation was received by Elizabeth A. Daniel of Continental Title Company in Overland Park, Kansas; and Tim L. Pearson of First Dakota Title in Bismarck, North Dakota.

“Both of these recipients demonstrate an exemplary level of commitment and service to the land title insurance industry,” said ALTA President Diane Evans NTP. “I congratulate them on their NTP designations and appreciate their hard work, enthusiasm and dedication.”

The National Title Professional \(NTP\) designation recognizes land title professionals who demonstrate the knowledge, experience and dedication essential to the safe and efficient transfer of real property.*

The designation has several elements, including industry and compliance prerequisites and training requirements. To apply for the NTP designation and for more information, please visit ALTA's NTP website.

*Designation under the National Title Professional Program solely demonstrates that a land title professional has met the particular standards and criteria of the National Title Professional Program. Neither the American Land Title Association, nor the designation itself, guarantees or warrants anything beyond a designee's ability to meet such standards or criteria. The American Land Title Association makes no representations, warranties, or guarantees as to, and has and assumes no responsibility for the proper performance of land title services, including but not limited to the transfer of real property, or related services provided by designees.
