Howell, Mich., Resident Receives National Title Professional Designation from the American Land Title Association

Washington, D.C., September 20, 2016 — Deborah A. Wiley has been awarded a National Title Professional (NTP) designation from the American Land Title Association (ALTA), the national trade association of the land title insurance industry. Wiley is the third NTP designee from Michigan and joins 66 other industry leaders from around the United States who have earned the professional designation.

The designation recognizes land title professionals who demonstrate the knowledge, experience and dedication essential to the safe and efficient transfer of real property.*

“Debbie has proven her dedication to the land title insurance business consistently throughout her 30 years of service to our industry,” said ALTA President John M. Hollenbeck NTP. “Her commitment to education and excellence combined with her enthusiasm make her an outstanding National Title Professional designee. I encourage more title professionals in Michigan to apply for this prestigious designation.”

Wiley is agency account manager for First American Title Insurance Company in Grand Rapids, Mich. Wiley has more than 30 years of industry experience and currently serves as president of the Michigan Land Title Association (MLTA). In 2013, she received the MLTA Certified Land Title Professional designation.
