- a) Active: Any sole proprietorship, partnership, limited liability company, corporation, or other business entity (hereinafter “Business Entity” or “Business Entities”) primarily engaged in and legally qualified to engage in the business of land title evidencing or insuring as an abstracter, title insurance agent, or title insurance underwriter, and agreeing to be governed by the Bylaws and policies of the Association, is eligible for Active membership in the Association.

Section 2: Representation and Voting

Section 3: Resignation or Removal from Membership

A member may resign from membership at any time. Resignation must be communicated directly to the Association in writing and will be effective either immediately or on a later date designated by the member in writing. A resigning member remains liable for payment of any outstanding annual membership dues owed prior to the date of the member's resignation.

The Board may suspend or expel a member by the affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the members of the Board then in office, if such member does not comply with the Association's Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws, or policies, or if it is determined that the conduct, act, or omission of such member violates the purpose, mission, or values of the Association or is otherwise prejudicial to the welfare or reputation of the Association.

Article IV – Meetings

Section 1: Annual Meeting of the Members

The Association shall hold an Annual Meeting at a time and place fixed by the Board. Members will be given six (6) months' prior notification of the time and place of an Annual Meeting. The Association may hold additional general membership meetings each year as the Board may deem necessary upon thirty (30) days' notice to the membership.

Section 2: Special Meetings

A special meeting of the members may be called by the President, at least three (3) Board members, or twenty-five percent (25%) of the members holding voting rights. Special meetings of the members, if any, must be preceded by at least one (1) day's notice to all voting members of the date, time, location, and purpose(s) of the meeting. Notice may be provided in writing, orally, or by any other method permissible by law. Only business within the purposes outlined in the notice may be conducted at a special meeting of the members.

Section 3: Quorum and Voting

Unless a greater proportion is required by law, the members present shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. If a quorum is present at the commencement of a meeting, a quorum is deemed present throughout such proceedings. Except as otherwise provided by law or by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, the act of a majority of the members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present is the act of the members. Proxies are not permitted for any member action.

Section 4: Meetings by Remote Communications

The Board may elect to hold any meeting of the membership by means of the internet, telephone conference, or other electronic communications technology, by means of which all members participating in the meeting can communicate with one another. Such participation constitutes presence in person at the meeting.

Section 5: Executive Session

At each Annual Meeting there may be an executive session. Executive sessions, other than at the Annual Meeting, may be called by the Board and occur at a time and place established by the Board. Attendance at executive sessions is restricted to Active members or their personnel.

Section 6: Section Meetings

Each Section of the Association shall meet in conjunction with the Annual Meeting and may meet at other times during the year.

Section 7: Meetings with State and Regional Land Title Associations

The Officers of the Association may meet jointly with officers or delegates of state and regional land title associations at mutually agreed upon times or at the call of the President.

Section 8: Meetings of the Board

- a) Regular Meetings: Regular Meetings of the Board must be held during the Annual Meeting at a time and place designated by the President. Additional Regular Meetings may be held during the year at a date and time designated by the President.
- b) Special Meetings: Special Meetings of the Board may be called by the President, or by not less than three (3) Board members, with at least a five (5) days' notice stating the date, time, and purpose of the meeting.
- c) Meetings by Remote Communications. Unless otherwise restricted by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, any or all Board members may participate in a meeting of the Board means of the internet, telephone conference, or other electronic communications technology, by means of which all members participating in the meeting can communicate with one another. Such remote participation constitutes presence in person at the meeting.
- d) Quorum: Unless a greater proportion is required by law, a majority of the Board members then in office constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business. If a quorum is present at the beginning of a meeting, a quorum will be deemed present throughout the meeting. Except as otherwise provided by law or by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, the act of a majority of the Board members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present is the act of the Board.
- e) Action Without a Meeting: Unless otherwise restricted by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board may be taken without a meeting if all of the Board members consent in writing through electronic mail, fax, or mail authorizing the action ("unanimous written consent"). The resolutions and the written consents thereto by the Board members must be filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board. A unanimous written consent has the effect of action taken at a meeting of the Board and may be described as such.
- f) Emergency Powers: In the event a quorum of the Board cannot readily be assembled due to a catastrophic event, the Association is authorized to exercise emergency powers as permitted by law.
- g) No member of the Board may be represented by proxy at any meeting.

- c) Membership on the Abstracters and Title Insurance Agents Section Executive Committee is limited to individuals acting as an abstracter or title insurance agent, or principals or employees of an abstracter or title insurance agent which is not majority-owned by a title insurance underwriter, or, if majority-owned by a title insurance underwriter, has opted to maintain a separate membership in the Abstracters and Title Insurance Agents Section as described in Article VI, Section 1(b). For purposes of this section, a title insurance agent is defined as a Business Entity which is party to an agency agreement with a title insurance underwriter or affiliate.

- i. A principal or employee of a title insurance agent serving as a member of the Section Executive Committee when a title insurance underwriter obtains more than a fifty percent (50%) ownership interest in the title insurance agent will not be eligible to complete the term of office unless the change in ownership occurs in the third year of the term. If the change in ownership occurs during the first or second year of the individual's term of office, the member may complete the current year of the term.
- ii. A principal or employee of a title insurance agent serving as President-Elect when a title insurance underwriter obtains more than a fifty percent (50%) ownership interest in the title insurance agent may complete the term as President-Elect, succeed to the office of President as provided in Article VII, Section 2(a), and serve as Past President, provided the individual continues to be active in land title evidencing or insuring.

Section 4: Nomination and Election of the Executive Committee of a Section

Each Section shall have a Nominating Committee as described in Article VIII, Section 2(e)(i), and shall elect members of its Executive Committee in the manner prescribed in Article IX, Section 11(a).

Effective November 1, 2027, no two (2) members of the Board may represent the same company, or companies owned or controlled by the same holding company, at the same time. If a member of the Board changes their place of employment or there is a change in company ownership during the member's term on the Board which results in a violation of this provision, the affected Board members will be permitted to complete their term.

b) Vacancies:

- i. If the office of President becomes vacant, the President-Elect will become President of the Association for the unexpired term, but this will not prevent the President-Elect from becoming President of the Association in accordance with Article VII, Section 2(a)(ii).
- ii. If the office of President becomes vacant when the office of President-Elect is also vacant, the Board shall appoint a President for the remainder of the unexpired term.
- iii. If the office of President-Elect becomes vacant, the Nominating Committee of the Association shall submit to the Board a candidate from among the members of the Section Executive Committee or the Officers of the Association, in either case from the same Section of membership, to fill the unexpired term of the office. If the Board accepts the nominee by a majority vote of the Board members then in office, the nominee serves as President-Elect for the remainder of the unexpired term. The nominee automatically succeeds to the office of President.
