

Daniel D. Mennenoh
Chair, Abstracters &
Title Insurance Agents Section
American Land Title Association

Daniel D. Mennenoh began his career in the title insurance industry in 1982 when he joined Galena, Ill.-based H.B. Wilkinson Title Co., a privately held company established in 1883. He was named president of the company in 1996 upon the retirement of his father, John Mennenoh.

In addition to being a member of ALTA's Board of Governors, Mennenoh serves as chair of the Abstracters and Title Insurance Agents Section Executive Committee and is chair of the Abstracters and Title Insurance Agents Section Research Subcommittee.

Mennenoh formerly served as director of the Illinois Land Title Association (ILTA) and served as its president from 1998-1999. Participating on numerous committees for ILTA, he currently serves as chair of the association's Political Action Committee and is a member of the Communications Committee. In 2006, Mennenoh was elected to the Board of Directors for the Title Industry Assurance Company (TIAC), a professional liability insurance company for the title industry. He currently serves as TIAC's president.

Active in the local community, Mennenoh has been a member of Rotary International for 25 years and a member of the Galena Rotary Club for 20 years. He served for 12 years on the Board of Directors of the Galena-Stauss Hospital and Healthcare Center, now known as the Midwest Medical Center. He also served as chairman of the board for six years, during which time a new, state-of-the-art replacement hospital was constructed.

Mennenoh's wife, Merry, is the accounting and human resource manager for H.B. Wilkinson Title Co. They have lived in the historic district of Galena, Ill., for the past 20 years and have two children. In 2008, their daughter, Devon Irby, started working for the company, becoming the third generation of the family in the title business.

02/14