SW Florida Attorney

Chris Black, Esq.

Around town, Chris is best known as Lydia's husband. At the office, he is fanatically committed to crafting experiences that are comfortable for consumers and that enhance the businesses of real estate professionals through satisfied, repeat clients and enthusiastic referrals. Chris' vision for Winged Foot Title is to create a profitable and replicable enterprise that will succeed in any market.

Out of the office, Chris cherishes the time he spends with Lydia and their daughter and enjoys playing as much golf as possible (which of course is never enough!). Still unsure why, Chris began running in the summer of 2013 and, with a handful of 5K races under his belt, has his sights on completing a half marathon in 2014.
