For Immediate Release

American Land Title Association Supports U.S. Supreme Court Decision Protecting LGBTQ Workers from Discrimination

Washington, D.C., June 15, 2020—The American Land Title Association (ALTA), the national trade association of the land title insurance industry, issued the following statement following the U.S. Supreme Court ruling in Bostock v. Clayton County, Georgia:

“The American Land Title Association applauds the Supreme Court’s landmark decision to protect workers no matter their sexual orientation or gender identification,” said Diane Tomb, ALTA’s chief executive officer. “Just as we believe in protecting property rights, we support inclusivity and defending everyone’s ability to work without fear of discrimination.”
