American Land Title Association Issues Statement on Confirmation of Rohit Chopra as CFPB Director

Washington, D.C., Sept. 30, 2021 — The American Land Title Association (ALTA), the national trade association of the land title insurance industry, released the following statement on the Senate’s confirmation of Rohit Chopra as director of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB):

“On behalf of the American Land Title Association and our members nationwide, we congratulate Rohit Chopra on his confirmation as director of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau,” said Diane Tomb, ALTA’s chief executive officer. “ALTA and its members look forward to working with Director Chopra and the Bureau’s staff to help provide positive and compliant real estate settlement experiences for consumers—and to serve as a resource on important issues, such as wire transfer fraud, third-party oversight and mortgage disclosures.”
