American Land Title Association Announces Two National Title Professional Designations

Washington, D.C., April 15, 2014 — The American Land Title Association (ALTA), the national trade association of the land title insurance industry, awarded two National Title Professional (NTP) designations today.

The professional designation was awarded to Deborah Scott of Omaha Title and Escrow, Inc. in Omaha, Nebraska; and Crystal J. Peltola of Alaska USA Title Agency, LLC in Anchorage, Alaska.

“I congratulate both of these dedicated and qualified women,” said ALTA President Rob Chapman. “Their hard work and efforts are invaluable contributions to the land title industry. As we celebrate their work, I also encourage other members of the land title industry to apply for the NTP designation.”

The National Title Professional \(NTP\) designation recognizes land title professionals who demonstrate the knowledge, experience and dedication essential to the safe and efficient transfer of real property.*

The designation has several elements, including industry and compliance prerequisites and training requirements. To apply for the NTP designation and for more information, please visit ALTA's NTP website.

About ALTA

The American Land Title Association, founded in 1907, is the national trade association representing 4,500 title insurance companies, title agents, independent abstracters, title searchers, and attorneys. With offices throughout the United States, ALTA members conduct title searches, examinations, closings, and issue title insurance that protects real property owners and mortgage lenders against losses from defects in titles.

*Designation under the National Title Professional Program solely demonstrates that a land title professional has met the particular standards and criteria of the National Title Professional Program. Neither the American Land Title Association, nor the designation itself, guarantees or warrants anything beyond a designee's ability to meet such standards or criteria. The American Land Title Association makes no representations, warranties, or guarantees as to, and has and assumes no responsibility for the proper performance of land title services, including but not limited to the transfer of real property, or related services provided by designees.
