American Land Title Association Honors First Idaho Designee with National Title Professional Recognition

Washington, D.C., January 10, 2018 — John Holt has been awarded a National Title Professional (NTP) designation from the American Land Title Association (ALTA), the national trade association of the land title insurance industry. Holt was the first NTP designee from Idaho, receiving his designation in April 2017; he joins more than 80 other industry leaders who have earned the professional designation nationwide.

The designation recognizes land title professionals who demonstrate the knowledge, experience and dedication essential to the safe and efficient transfer of real property.*

Compliance and claims counsel for Old Republic National Title Insurance Co. in Boise, Idaho, Holt has spent more than 30 years in the title industry. He has served as the executive director and secretary/treasurer of the Idaho Land Title Association (ILTA) since 2001 and is the association's primary liaison to ALTA. From 1998-2000, Holt previously served as vice president and president of ILTA. He also is a governor-appointed member of Idaho's electronic recording commission.

A full directory of National Title Professionals is available here.

The designation has several elements, including industry and compliance prerequisites and training requirements. To apply for the NTP designation and for more information, please visit ALTA's NTP website.
