

THE ALTA REGISTRY IS MUCH LIKE A PHONE BOOK

Agents and underwriters have communicated to confirm company name and contact information - providing lenders with a trusted industry utility to identify transaction partners.

The ALTA Registry database lists a business and its accurate information at the time of confirmation by a title insurance underwriter.

Much like if you look up someone's number in a phone book, the ALTA Registry is a snapshot of information. You may find a house you like on Zillow, but you would still call your real estate agent to see if it's still available and if the price has dropped.
